Applicable to all solicitors and mediators. SYNOPSIS: Building management has become an area of growing public concern. Managing multi-storey buildings involves interactions among individual owners, Incorporated Owners (IO), managers, government bodies, and third parties such as contractors and visitors. Disputes frequently arise in daily operations. • Workshop I (27 May): Resolving disputes between managers and owners	• Workshop II (28 May): Proper management and functioning of IOs • Workshop III (29 May): Disputes among owners, including IOs as owners of common parts recent amendments to the Building Management Ordinance (2025) will also be discussed. SPEAKER: Dr. Roger So is a barrister, accredited general and family mediator, and Chartered Engineer. He is a Fellow of the Hong Kong Institute of Arbitrators and a Corporate Member of the Hong Kong Institution of Engineers. His academic credentials include a Doctor of Business Administration (University of Newcastle, Australia), JD, MA in Arbitration & Dispute Resolution, and PCLL. In addition to his mediation practice, Dr. So has served as Chairman of the Building Appeal Tribunal.
